KALAMAZOO, Mich., February 2. 1880.—I know Hop Bitters will bear recommendation hone-tly. All who use them confer upon them the highest encomiums, and give them credit for making cures.—all the proprietors claim for them. I have kept them since they were first offered to the public. They took high rank from the first, and maintained it, and are more called for than all others combined. So long EDWARD ELLIS, under arrest for wrecking a train on the Missi-quot railroad, has made a full confession. He was ejected from the train for non-payment of fare and misplaced the switch to get even with the conductor. He did to get back on the main line. In Brattleboro, Fisk's large framed block on Main street, occupied by several business firms, was destroyed by an incendiary fire early Friday morning, together with a private barn belonging to the late James Fisk, Jr. The fire for a time threatened the whole east side of Main street, which was only saved by the absence of wind and the timely efforts of the fire department. The loss is estimated at $15,000. Eugene Frost's large frame barn on Fiat street was burned by an incendiary fire at the same hour, including live stock, hay and grain. Loss about $2 000. Both losses are covered by insurance in home and foreign companies.

The Rutland Herald says: "A business man in Castleton has occupied the same rooms since 1854, and has had his windows washed but twice in thirty years. We would advise him to procure a hogshead of water and a gallon of soft soap and apply it to the windows before snow flies, if he wants any daylight through these dark fall days. This man has planted one kind of p tatoes on the same half acre of land since 1855, and this year he harvested an average crop. He also gathered four hundred and fifty pounds of solid cabbage from forty heads, though it is an off year for cabbages in this locality."

no means of identification until, on November 8th, an insurance policy issued to Mrs. Nelson was found near the spot. Then search was instituted for Jasper, and he was arrested at Cape Girardeau, Mo., Wednesday of last week. He broke down completely when arrested. By the murder he obtained a large sum of money his mother had, and has since sold considerable property belonging to her in Missouri. He was taken to Icalianastic.

THERE is a constant effort on the part of that grim monster, "Disease," to become master of mortal man. Only a careful observance of natural laws can render his efforts unvailing.

natural laws can render his efforts unvaling. Yet too often injudicious excesses, sudden changes, too great exposure, improper food or other abuses of nature open the gateway and disease gains a victory. Sometimes its mastery is so complete that nature of herself can never effect a dislodgement. In such instances reinforce nature with a judicious use of Brown's Iron Bitters and we guarantee in a short time all disease will be varquished.

New England Conservatory Method, book for beginners, teaches light and sacred imists, and is highly commended by successful, practical teachers. As a grand book for beginners and advanced students, covering the entire ground, and furnishing a large quantity of delightful organ music, we commend the Emerson Method for Reed Organs. $2.59, by Emerson and Matthews; and for Voinntary and general advanced practice on the Church Organ, Reed or Pipe, nothing can surpass Clarke's Harmonic School for the Organ $3.00

THE SOL-FA SINGER, Part 1.

By E. P. ANDREWS, PRICE 35 ets.

Teachers of the common method of note singing will find in this book a large and very useful quantity of syllob'e practice. A note reader can learn in 15 minutes to sing d, r, m, f, s, l, t, and all the rest, and it need not be in the way of a regular course. Tonic-Sol-Faista will find this "singer" equal to any other.
